We are deliberate, purposeful and determined. Our collaborative 'task force' methodology ensures that legal issues are addressed by the requisite mix of experience, advocacy, judgment and application to best solve our clients' disputes. Because of the depth of in-house counsel within the firm, we are fearless in our approach on your behalf. Our advocacy extends not merely to Courts at every level in Australia and Western Australia but to skilled negotiation and other forms of dispute resolution.

Statistics from the Western Australian legal market emphasise our pre-eminent status in the market. Since February 2011, Bennett has acted on matters resulting in a written judgment of a Court or Tribunal in over 600 instances. Many of these are significant nationally important judgments.

We have provided legal counsel in many significant landmark cases in Western Australia.
